

Comenius University (Univerzita Komenského) in Bratislava

- is the oldest national university of the Slovak Republic. Currently there are over 29 000 students in 8 Faculties (Medicine, Law, Philosophy, Natural Sciences, Education, Pharmacy, Physical Education and Sport, Theological Faculty). The University employs 4400 staff.

The speech and language therapy (logopédia) can be studied only as a joint study programme of the bachelor (3 years) and masters (2 years) level, and it is the only programme in SLT in Slovakia. Those interested in pursuing a degree in speech and language pathology need to achieve satisfactory results entrance exam.

The programme in speech and language therapy provides students with an understanding of both theories and practices related to all aspect on human communication and its disorders. Topics cover various aspects of assessment and intervention management and current research in the field.

There are about 15 students in each year in SLT programme at Faculty of Education at Comenius University (currently about 75 students in the programme).

In order to become a speech and language therapist in Slovakia, students need to complete a master's degree program. All courses are taught in Slovak language.

More information: www.fedu.uniba.sk "Katedra logopédie".