

Institut d'Orthophonie G. Decroix, Lille

The school of SLT (orthophonie) is part of the Medical faculty of University Lille 2. Most important role is the Initial education of 487 Speech language Therapists coming from all parts of France and Europe.

The 4 year programme includes theoretical and practical (placements) courses as well as research. The school employs 129 teachers and more than 1000 supervisors of clinical training.

The school works together with other universities in France and other countries. The school also co-operates with the regional prof. association.

Paula Dei Cas
Directrice
Institut d'Orthophonie G. Decroix
Faculté de Médecine
Pôle Formation
59045 Lille Cedex
03 20 62 76 18